Fly Fishing for Native Brook Trout & Landlocked Salmon

ENDORSED FLY-FISHING LODGE OF THE YEAR

Now in its 5th generation, Libby Camps has been owned and operated by the Libby Family since 1890. Our float plane gives you unlimited access to the private 3.5-million-acre wilderness known as the North Maine Woods. Fish a different remote pond or wild river each day on the headwaters of three major rivers - the Aroostook, the Allagash and the Penobscot. Wild, native brook trout and landlocked salmon are within walking distance of the camps.

Libby Camps has been an Orvis Endorsed Fly Fishing Lodge since 1993, and our registered Maine guides proudly boast a combined 200+ years of experience fishing the lakes, ponds, and rivers of Maine. They fish every day with beginner and veteran anglers alike, so they are ready and willing whether you want to hone your casting technique and catch brook trout on a mountain stream, or hike in and hunt down the fish of a lifetime on a remote pond.

Take a step back in time and enjoy the same simple pleasures our guests enjoyed at the turn of the century. Beautiful, rustic cabins with gas lighting, hand made quilts on the beds, and wood fireplaces. Breathtaking sunsets, spectacular sunrises, and the brightest stars you've ever seen - we guarantee it. WIFI is available in the lodge if you need to connect with the outside world, but we think you'll appreciate the escape.

Mingle with our guides, owners, and other guests over appetizers and cocktails in the outdoor pavilion before dinner. Home-cooked meals are served family style in our dining room overlooking the lake, where good food and pleasantries flow as freely as the fishing stories. Our menu combines favorite recipes over a century old with more modern American cuisine, and our lodge is filled daily with the sweet aromas of fresh baked breads, cookies, and hearty homemade pies.

No detail is spared to ensure your stay with us is a relaxing and memorable experience. Whether you are planning a family vacation, a corporate event, or a getaway with long lost friends, we look forward to hosting you!
